

4-H Club Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Big Island 4-H Club was held Thursday, February, at 1:40 p. m. In the absence of our president, Evelyn Denton, the vice-president, Richard Walker, took charge of the meeting. The following program was rendered:

Bible Reading—Myrtle Dayton.

Roll Call—Mary Horton.

Poem—Frances Ransom.

If I Should Die (poem)—Bernice Tanner.

Solo—Virginia Brown.

Reading—Mary E. Tanner.

Song—By All.

We were glad to welcome several new members.

Mr. Alexander and Miss Farrar, county demonstration agents, were with us. Mr. Alexander visited our club for the first time. He is assisting Mr. Hylton with his work.

After the club was discussed Miss Farrar talked to the girls about their clothing units, while Mr. Alexander talked to the boys about their projects.

4-H Club Notes

The regular meeting of the Big Island 4-H club was held Thursday afternoon, May 16. The following program was rendered:

Bible Reading—Mary Tanner.

Lord's Prayer—All.

Poem: "Toast to Mother"—Evelyn Walker.

Song, "America"—All.

"Our Love and Duty Toward Our Mother"—Vivian Oliver.
